

Teacher's Guide

Regional Impact Statement

Region: _____

Name two events that had a significant impact on the people and/or land in this region. Describe the impact of each event and explain why you think this event is important.

Event #1

It's impact:

Why I think it is important:

Event #2

It's impact:

Why I think it is important:

Identify a person or group associated with the region's history. Describe why you think they are important and/or memorable.

List one primary source of information related to your region, and describe what you learned from it about the region's history.

Identify two factors that had an impact on the region. Describe what the impacts have been. (These might include such things as transportation, national security, natural resource development, trade, government services, etc.)

