

Teacher's Guide

Political Relations Activity

Instructions:

Complete the subjects of sentences in A by matching them with the predicates of sentences in B.

A. Sentence Beginnings

The political authority of Alaska Natives _____

Conflicts between the Tlingits and the military erupted only when _____

White businessmen and missionaries had led a well-organized effort to

Until 1884 Alaska Natives were denied _____

They had no legal recourse in resisting _____

In 1924 they elected William Paul, a brilliant Tlingit lawyer, _____

In 1945 the territorial legislature enacted _____

B. Sentence Endings

protection provided under U. S. Indian law and policy.

native people applied their traditional laws to whites.

an antidiscrimination bill.

went almost unchallenged during the initial period of U.S. administration, in part because of the small American population and the absence of civil law.

as the first Alaska Native representative to the territorial legislature.

the ongoing encroachments into their territories and the appropriations of their land and resources.

promote the passage of the act in order to expand their opportunities and to promote the "settlement" of the area.